

The Tourism and Relocation Committee of Andalusia is publishing an area heritage cookbook

We Need Your Recipes

From the 1920s thru the 1970s
for our new Heritage Cookbook

As you begin to plan your meals and parties, take a trip down memory lane and select your favorite recipes to share with us.

SEND YOUR BEST RECIPIES TO:

Andalusia City Hall
P.O. Box 429
Andalusia, Alabama 36420

Please include your name and contact information as well as any information regarding the source of the recipe.

For more information contact Barbara 427- 0454 or Melissa 222-4033

CITY OF ANDALUSIA TOURISM & RELOCATION COMMITTEE
EARL V. JOHNSON, MAYOR

COMMITTEE MEMBERS
JEWEL CURRY, CHAIRPERSON
MARTHA DUGGAN
MELISSA GAMBILL
JOHN HOWARD
GWEN KELLEY
EMMA LOCKE
BARBARA NICHOLS
PAT PALMORE
MARY JANE WINKLER

Dear Area Resident,

I hope that you have enjoyed your holidays. I love to cook during this time of year. And if you're like me, you are thumbing through recipe books, recipe files, and holiday magazines. As I do this, I think of my mom's glorified brownies, Grandmother Vera's ambrosia and Aunt Louise's famous party dip. This year as you look at your recipes, please consider sharing one or two with us, along with the story behind it, as the City of Andalusia Tourism & Relocation Committee will begin to collect entries for the "Heart and Soul: Our Heritage Cookbook".

This cookbook promises to be unique in content as well as format. So please don't limit your recipes to the holiday season, as some of the best food is served year round at the family dinner table. The focus of the cookbook will feature our local area's history with categories such as family recipes, famous and little known cooks, dinners on the ground, club parties, and food favorites from old timey cafes and joints: (ie: The Pit, Stokies, the Dixie Hotel, the Alatex cafeteria and King's Cafeteria). The recipes selected need to be from the early days through the seventies. Pictures, scanned copies of original recipes, stories behind the recipes, and "special instructions" can be included.

The selected recipes will be tested by a panel of area cooks and considered for publishing. Since the cookbook is a product of the Tourism and Relocation Committee of the City of Andalusia, it will be affordably priced and available for purchase by December 2012. Proceeds from the book will be used to cover publishing costs. The book will also be used to promote the area during our tourism-related events.

Simply write the recipe on the attached form, along with the name of the recipe founder and your relationship with this person. In addition, please include your contact information and send it to us by March 2012. Please join us on our trip down memory lane and submit your recipes today. For more information, contact Barbara Meredith Nichols at (334) 427-0454 or Melissa Merrill Gambill at (334) 222-4033. You may also email me at bnichols@andycable.com or Melissa at melgambill@andycable.com.

Thank you.

Barbara

Barbara Nichols, Coordinator
Cookbook Project
Tourism & Relocation Committee

Tourism and Relocation Committee Cookbook Project
Recipe Submission Form

(use additional pages of necessary)

Name of the Recipe: _____

Recipe Source (Person): _____

Name of the person submitting this recipe: _____

Home phone _____ Cell phone _____ email _____

Ingredients and amounts to be used by order of use

(Special ingredient brands, etc.)

Mixing and cooking instructions

servings _____ Cook Temperature _____ Cook Time _____

Recipe memory/story

Feel free to use attachments for photos, scanned recipes or etc.

Credit must be given if the recipe is printed in an existing cookbook.

Mail to: "Recipes" City of Andalusia

Attention: Dawn Reeves

PO Box 429 Andalusia, Alabama 36420

or send by email to bnichols@andycable.com or melgambill@andycable.com